Whistleblower Policy

1. Purpose

The company has adopted a code of conduct for all employees of Pahal including all level of Board, Management and Staff (the code”), which lays down the principles and standards that should govern their actions.

Any actual or potential violation of the code, howsoever insignificant or perceived as such, is a matter of serious concern for the company. The Company intends to prevent the occurrence of any practice not in compliance with the Code through Whistle Blower Policy/Vigil Mechanism. This mechanism aims to provide a secure environment to Employees for responsible reporting of the Code violation by Employees.

2. Objective of Policy

The Vigil (Whistle Blower) Mechanism aims to provide a channel to the Directors and employees to report genuine concerns about unethical behavior, actual or suspected fraud or violation of the code of conduct or policy.

Pahal Financial Services Private Limited (“PFSPL”) is committed to adhere to the highest standards of ethical, moral and legal conduct of business operations and in order to maintain these standards, PFSPL encourages its employees who have genuine concerns about suspected misconduct to come forward and express these concerns without fear of punishment or unfair treatment.

The mechanism provides adequate safeguards against victimization of Directors or employees.

This neither releases employees from their duty of confidentiality in the course of their work nor can it be said as a route for raising malicious or unfounded allegations about a personal situation.

3. Scope of the policy

The policy is an extension of the Code of Conduct of PFSPL and covers disclosure of any unethical and improper or malpractices and events which have taken place/suspected of taking place involving:

- Breach of the Company’s Code of Conduct.
- Breach of business Integrity and Ethics.
- Breach of Terms and Conditions and Employment thereof.
- Intentional Financial irregularities, including Fraud, or suspected fraud.
- Deliberate violation of laws/regulations.
- Gross or willful negligence causing substantial and specific danger to health, safety and environment.
- Manipulation of company data/records.

PFSPL/2026-27/2.1

- Pilferage of confidential /proprietary information.
- Gross Wastage/misappropriation of Company funds/assets.

4. Regulatory Aspects

- Section 177(9) of the Companies Act, 2013 mandates the following classes of the companies to constitute the Vigil Mechanism:
 - Every listed Company;*
 - Every other company which accepts deposits from the Public;
 - Every company which has borrowed money from banks and public financial institutions in excess of Rs. 50 Crore.*

* The Company falls under clauses (i) and (iii) above.

5. Definition

It should be factual and not speculative and should contain as much specific information as possible to allow for proper assessment of nature and extent of the concern.

PFSPL/2026-27/2.1

- “Vigilance Officer” is a person or committee of persons, nominated/appointed to receive protected disclosures from Whistle Blowers, maintaining records thereof, placing the same before the Audit Committee for its disposal and informing the Whistle Blower the result thereof. In the absence of an appointed Vigilance Officer as under for any reason for a period of 30 days, such a person shall act as vigilance Officer, as the Audit Committee may decide.

In the event that the office of the Vigilance Officer remains vacant for a period exceeding 30 days, the Chief Compliance Officer, as may be approved by the Board shall act as the Vigilance Officer until a new Vigilance Officer is appointed

- “Whistle Blower” is an employee or group of employees who make a Protected Disclosure under this policy and also referred in this policy as complainant.

6. Roles & Responsibilities of the Board / Committees in Whistleblower Complaints

Investigator (s)	• Conducts an impartial and confidential investigation to determine the facts and circumstances of the case. • Submits a detailed investigation report with factual findings and recommendations.
Vigilance Officer	• Acts as the designated recipient of Protected Disclosures. • Responsible for acknowledging receipt (where identity is known), conducting preliminary scrutiny, assessing materiality, and initiating investigation, where appropriate. • Reviews investigation findings and prepares a comprehensive summary report, including recommendations for disciplinary or corrective actions. • Submits the same to the Audit Committee for final evaluation.
Audit Committee	• The Audit Committee is responsible for monitoring the overall functioning of the vigil mechanism. • It shall be the primary authority for receiving reports from the Vigilance Officer, evaluating investigation outcomes, and recommending or initiating appropriate disciplinary or corrective actions. • It may, in exceptional cases, receive complaints directly from the Whistleblower.
Board of Directors	• The Board of Directors is responsible for the approval of the Whistleblower Policy and for ensuring that an effective vigil mechanism is in place within the organization. • It shall review, on a periodic basis, reports submitted by the Audit Committee on the status and outcome of complaints received under the policy. • Ensures the organization’s compliance with applicable regulatory requirements and maintains the integrity of the process.

7. Guidelines

7.1 Whistle Blower

- All Protected Disclosures should be reported in writing by the complainant as soon as possible, not later than 30 days after the Whistle Blower becomes aware of the same and should either be typed or written in legible handwriting, in whichever language the complainant is comfortable with. (Refer Annexure I for Format for Submission of Protected Disclosure)
- The Protected Disclosure should be submitted under a covering letter signed by the complainant in a closed and secured envelope and should be super scribed as “Protected Disclosure under the Whistle Blower Policy” or sent through email (with the subject “Protected Disclosure under the Whistle Blower Policy”. If the complaint is not super scribed and closed as mentioned above, the Protected Disclosure will be dealt with as if a normal Disclosure.
- All Protected Disclosures should be addressed to either of the Vigilance Officer of the Company or to the Chairman of the Audit committee in exceptional Cases.
- If Whistle Blower chooses to disclose his/her identity to the Vigilance Officer, the authenticity of Whistle Blower’s identity will be established by the Vigilance Officer before considering the case for the purpose of Investigation.
- In case of anonymous disclosure, Vigilance Officer shall, at his/her end, examine the possible intentions and genuineness of the disclosure in advance before going ahead with the investigation. In case the Vigilance Officer suspects that the allegation has been made with malafide intention or is frivolous in nature, or is not genuine, he/she can decide to drop the case.
- The Protected Disclosure made by the Whistle Blower must be genuine with adequate supporting data/proof. If it is established that the allegation was made with mala fide intentions or was frivolous in nature, or was not genuine, the Whistle Blower shall be subject to the Disciplinary Action.
- The Whistle Blower may also choose to be anonymous. However, it may sometimes be difficult or even impossible to thoroughly investigate the disclosures that are made anonymously. The Whistle Blower is, therefore, strongly encouraged to share his/her identity when making the disclosure.

Confidentiality

All concerns and issues raised under this Policy shall be treated in a confidential manner except to the extent necessary to conduct a complete, fair, and effective investigation. Similarly, the identities of the Whistle Blower and the Investigation Subject shall always be treated with confidentiality and shall only be disclosed to the investigating team for facilitation of proper investigation, if required.

Protection:

No unfair treatment shall be exhibited towards Whistle Blower by virtue of his/her having reported a Protected Disclosure under this policy and the Company shall ensure that full protection has been granted to him/her under the circumstances that Whistle Blower provides complete identity, against:

- (a) Unfair employment practices like retaliation, threat, or intimidation of termination / suspension of services / contracts etc.

- Direct or indirect abuse of authority to obstruct the Whistle Blower's right to continue performance of his/her duties/functions during routine daily operations, including making further Protected Disclosures under this Policy.
- The Whistle Blower may also report any violation of the above clause to the Audit Committee directly, which may direct an investigation into the same and decide suitable Disciplinary Action against the concerned.

7.2 Investigation Subject

- All Investigation Subjects shall be duly informed about the Protected Disclosures made against them at the commencement of the formal investigation process and shall have regular opportunities for providing an explanation during the course of the investigation process.
- No Investigation Subject shall directly/indirectly interfere with the investigation process, till the completion of the investigation.
- The Investigation Subject shall not destroy or tamper with any evidence and shall have a duty to co-operate with the Vigilance Officer and Investigators involved in the inquiry till the investigation process is completed.
- During the course of the investigation, all Investigation Subjects shall have a right to consult any person(s) of their choice, other than the Investigators and/or the Vigilance Officer and engage any legal counsel at their own cost to represent them in the investigation proceedings.
- All Investigation Subjects shall have a right to be informed about the results of the investigation process in writing by the Vigilance Officer after the completion of the inquiry. They will be given an opportunity to respond to the inquiry results, as contained in the investigation report.
- Where the results of the investigation highlight that the allegations made against the Investigation Subject are eventually dismissed as untenable, then the Company shall reimburse all such reasonable costs as shall have been incurred by the Investigation Subject to defend him/her, during the process of investigation.

7.3 Vigilance Officer

- The Vigilance Officer is duly authorized by the Board of Directors to receive/oversee any Protected Disclosures reported under this Policy. He/ She is responsible for ensuring appropriate action.
- Vigilance Officer in consultation with the Chairman of the Audit Committee may consider involving any Investigators for the purpose of conducting the investigation. However, the investigations shall be launched only after the review of Protected Disclosure by the Vigilance Officer, which establishes that;
- The Protected Disclosure made constitutes an unethical practice, as defined under this Policy;
- The Protected Disclosure made is supported by adequate information to support an Investigation;
- In case of anonymous disclosure, Vigilance Officer shall, at his end, examine the possible intentions and genuineness of the disclosure in advance before going ahead with the investigation. In case Vigilance Officer suspects that the allegation has been made with mala- fide intentions or is frivolous in nature, or is not genuine, he/she can decide to drop the case.

- In order to protect the identity of the complainant, the Vigilance Officer will not issue any acknowledgement to the complainants, and they are advised neither to write their name / address on the envelope nor enter into any further correspondence with the Vigilance Officer.

7.4 Investigator(s)

- The Investigator(s) shall conduct the inquiry in a fair and unbiased manner.
- The Investigator(s) shall ensure complete fact-finding.
- The Investigator(s) shall maintain strict confidentiality at all times.
- The Investigator(s) shall derive the outcome of the inquiry and recommend an appropriate course of action.

- b. Any disciplinary/corrective action initiated against the Investigation Subject as a result of the findings of an investigation shall adhere to the applicable personnel conduct and disciplinary procedures.

PFSPL/2026-27/2.1

12. Modality & Timeline for Submission of Protected Disclosure

In line with the provisions of the Whistleblower Policy, a Whistleblower may submit a Protected Disclosure through either of the following modes:

- Physical Submission:
 - The written disclosure may be submitted in a sealed envelope, clearly superscribed as: "Protected Disclosure under the Whistleblower Policy"
 - The envelope should be addressed to the Vigilance Officer or, in exceptional cases, to the Chairperson of the Audit Committee at the designated office address.
- Electronic Submission:
 - The disclosure may also be submitted via email to the official.
 - Email ID designated for this purpose: vigilanceofficer@pahalfinance.com
 - In case of submission to the Audit Committee Chairman the email ID shall be addressed to @satishgmehta@gmail.com.
 - In the subject line of the email, it must clearly state: "Protected Disclosure under the Whistleblower Policy"
- Format:
To facilitate a structured and complete disclosure, Whistleblowers are encouraged to use the standard format provided in Annexure – I of this Policy. While anonymous disclosures are permitted, disclosures containing adequate detail and identity (where feasible) enable more effective investigation and resolution.
- Timeline:
The Protected Disclosure must be submitted within 30 days from the date the Whistleblower becomes aware of the incident.
- Completion of Investigation:
The investigation process, upon receipt of a Protected Disclosure, shall ordinarily be completed within 60 days, ensuring a fair, impartial, and time-bound inquiry. Any delay beyond the stipulated period shall be appropriately justified and documented in the investigation report, along with the reasons for the extension.
- Acknowledgement & Confidentiality:
Where identity is disclosed, the Vigilance Officer may acknowledge receipt of the complaint. The identity of the Whistleblower shall be kept strictly confidential unless required by law or necessary to facilitate a fair investigation.

13. Classification and Nature of Investigation

The nature and extent of investigation shall be determined based on the facts, complexity, and sensitivity of the disclosure. While all complaints will initially be reviewed internally, the Company may, at its discretion and in consultation with the Audit Committee, escalate the matter to relevant authorities if the circumstances so warrant.

14. Retention of Documents

- a. The Audit Committee shall submit a report to the Board of the Company on a regular basis about all Protected Disclosures referred to them together with the results of the investigation, if any.
- b. The related documents need to be preserved for a minimum of five years from the date of final reporting.

15. Amendment

PFSPL/2026-27/2.1

The company reserves its rights to amend or modify this policy in whole or in part, at any time without assigning any reason whatsoever. However, no such amendment or modification will be binding on the Employees and Directors unless the same is approved by the Board of Directors and hosted on the company website.

16. Communication

A Whistle Blower Policy cannot be effective unless it is properly communicated to employees, Employees shall be informed through by publishing in noticeboard and the website of the company.

All employees of the company shall abide by, obey, and be bound to implement any decision taken on the direction given by the Audit committee.
